NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER

If bills are not paid in full for the labor, services, equipment, or materials furnished or to be furnished, a mechanic's lien leading to the loss through court foreclosure proceedings, of all or part of your property being so improved may be placed against the property even though you have paid your contractor in full. You may wish to protect yourself against this consequence by requiring your contractor to furnish a signed release by the person or firm giving you this notice before making payment to your contractor, (2) any other method or device that is appropriate under the circumstances for residential dwellings containing more than five units, private property owners must require original contractor and assignee who has provided this notice in accordance with Section 3097 of the Civil Code that a notice of completion or notice of cessation has been recorded within 10 days of its recordation. Notice shall be by registered mail, certified mail, or first-class mail, evidenced by a certificate of mailing. Failure to notify will extend the deadlines to record a lien.

If this notice is given by a subcontractor who is required under a collective bargaining agreement to pay fringe benefits, the names and addresses of the laborers and express trust funds follow:

Pursuant to California Civil Code Section 3097.1, the sender of this preliminary notice is required to maintain a Proof of Service Affidavit containing specific information.
